

KEY DEVELOPMENTS IN THE HUMAN RIGHTS SITUATION IN INDIAN-ADMINISTERED KASHMIR

January 1, 2024 - January 31, 2024

SUMMARY

In January 2024, Indian authorities continued to commit grave human rights violations in Indian-administered Kashmir (IAK). Indian forces killed at least one individual and continued their ongoing campaigns of mass arbitrary detention and property expropriation. Indian authorities continued to target any form of dissent, including through arresting or criminally pursuing at least five people (including at least one minor) for social media posts. Indian authorities continued to escalate forced demographic change in the region, including through the expansion of militarized settlements for the families of dead Indian armed forces personnel.

Numerous Kashmiri journalists, human rights defenders, political activists, and dissenters continue to be arbitrarily detained. In a case emblematic of Indian repression targeting Kashmiri human rights defenders, Khurram Parvez has been illegally imprisoned in a maximum-security facility in New Delhi for over 2 years (815 days). In a case emblematic of the repression targeting Kashmiri journalists, Aasif Sultan has been illegally imprisoned for almost five and half years (1,998 days).

Due to ongoing repression by Indian authorities, key developments in the human rights situation in IAK have likely gone unreported.

Note: Indian officials often label pro-self-determination or pro-human rights activity as "terrorism" in IAK. Indian authorities also often label any victim of state violence or violations (and not just armed resistance fighters) as a "terrorist" or "militant" and any dissenter in IAK as a "terrorist," "secessionist," or "militant." If a violation occurs near the Line of Control (LOC), the victim is typically labeled a "foreign terrorist," "intruder," or "infiltrator." If the victim is not affiliated with any organized dissent, they are often labeled an "overground worker" (or "OGW"), "hybrid militant," "hybrid terrorist," or "militant associate." If the individual is a journalist, scholar, or human rights defender, they are often labeled a "narrative terrorist" or "white collar terrorist." These unsubstantiated, demonizing and dehumanizing labels are used to legitimate violations against civilians, including extrajudicial killings, arbitrary detentions, raids, and the forcible taking of property.

VIOLATIONS OF ENVIRONMENTAL RIGHTS

Riverbed mining continued to cause grave environmental damage in IAK

Riverbed mining in Kashmir's rivers, particularly the Jhelum, has caused extensive damage to homes, farmlands, and orchards and has led to changes in river morphology, erosion of riverbanks, severe pollution, flash floods, water scarcity and increased food security in IAK.

IMPUNITY AND LACK OF ACCESS TO JUSTICE

India’s National Human Rights Commission mandated to hear human rights grievances in IAK

India’s discredited National Human Rights Commission has been tasked to hear human rights complaints in IAK. Indian authorities abolished the State Human Rights Commission in 2019, terminating some 17,000 established cases of grave human rights violations. Due to extensive, grave reprisals, victims in IAK have avoided reporting violations.

PUBLIC STATEMENTS, COMMUNICATIONS, AND REPORTS

Haris Zargar and Goldie Osuri published “The Distinct Dispossessions of Indian Settler Colonialism in Kashmir: Land, Narrative and Indigeneity” in the peer-reviewed journal Development and Change, arguing that the situation in IAK is one of settler colonialism similar to Palestine and East Turkestan.

Emma Brännlund and others published “In/secure Childhoods: Children and Conflict in Kashmir” in the peer-reviewed journal Childhood, analyzing the artwork of children in IAK through feminist security studies lens.

Nayeem Rather and Saranga Ugalmugle published “Justice Kaul Calls for TRC In Kashmir, But Look At The Fate Of Those Whose Work Can Enable It” in the independent online law-related media platform The Leaflet, arguing that detention of Kashmiri human rights defenders like Irfan Mehraj and Khurram Parvez belies the Indian state’s interest in truth-telling and reconciliation in IAK.
